

Shelly
Miller, MD
Pediatric Concierge Medicine

After completing a master's degree in International Health at UCLA, Shelly attended University of Colorado Medical School. She spent a year working in Zimbabwe and Malawi before residency at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital. Shelly's career includes working for over a decade in private practice in SF and Marin in pediatrics and infectious disease. As a physician with Burgess Pediatrics, the first exclusively pediatric concierge practice on the Peninsula, Shelly subscribes to a modern version of old-fashioned medicine, fostering meaningful doctor-patient relationships and providing personalized care. Her goal is to optimize health, both physical and emotional, in a warm, convenient and unhurried environment. Shelly encourages kids to be engaged in understanding their bodies and partners with patients to arrive at the best choice for their family. Call for a complimentary appointment to meet the doctors and learn more about Burgess Pediatrics.
